Information About Reception of the Sacraments

The seven Sacraments of the Church were instituted by Christ to confer grace.

Sacrament of Baptism. Call the parish office to register for the parents' pre-Baptismal instruction. For adults seeking to enter the Church and be Baptized, contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Penance (Confession). Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for Confession at age seven, as part of First Communion preparation.

Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for First Communion at age seven. Adults seeking First Communion should contact our Religious Ed. Office

Sacrament of Confirmation. Young people in our parish are prepared for reception of Confirmation in the ninth grade (age 14). For adults seeking Confirmation contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. Couples planning for Marriage are to contact a parish priest or deacon one year in advance to set the wedding date and plan for pre-Cana instruction.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. If you believe you have, or someone you know has, a vocation to the Priesthood or Diaconate, please contact one of our parish priests.

Anointing of the Sick. For the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick (sometimes called "Last Rites") administered by a Priest, a person or immediate family member must make the request. Late night requests may not be able to be answered until the next day. For a visitation to the sick, or Holy Communion to the sick, contact our parish office.

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, I want to share God's great mercy and avail folks of the gift and blessing Christian marriage. Last year, at about this same time, I wrote a Pastor's Column about the Sacrament of Marriage, and exhorted folks who were living together or were married outside the Church, to consider getting married (or getting their marriage "blessed") in the Church. As it is April, and the number of weddings rise between now and the Fall, I thought it best to rerun a modified version of my comments regarding marriage in this column.

Ratings, Weddings and Genies. TV lover that I am, I can remember back in 1970, watching the wedding episode of "I Dream of Jeannie" when in a play for better ratings, using wedding-based glitz and glamor, Jeannie and Major Nelson (a lady genie and her astronaut beau) tied the knot. Alas, not even a genie and a wedding could save the show – and it was soon cancelled. This episode "I Dream of Jeannie" tell us something about weddings and marriages that life experience confirms. A wedding should not be about show and flash, or glitz and glamour; rather it should solemnly celebrate the first day of a lifetime of a marriage of a man and a woman.

Wedding Bell Blues? In our world today, weddings seem to have taken on a greater importance than the marriage itself. There are wedding TV shows, wedding registries, wedding planners, and a whole host of things that have made weddings the second largest expense in a person's life, after buying a home. The problem with this is that "the wedding" has become the focus of attention, while marriage has become some mere echoed after effect. To make an analogy, it would be like having a child and making the entire focus on the child's birth, and then once he's born, tossing him aside and just looking back on that birth event.

Gifts and Marriage. To be clear, in the Catholic Church, there is not a Sacrament of Wedding; there is a Sacrament of Marriage. The focus of that Sacrament is not on the event (the wedding), but on the vocation (married life). Thus, I often tell couples preparing for marriage to stop watching TV wedding shows. Why? Because marriage is not about the "event" of a wedding but, rather, about a life spent together. Thus, while a wedding passes into history in a few hours (after the cutting of the cake and the receiving of some Kenmore blenders, gift cards, and perhaps a set of Ginsu knives), the marriage endures. And marriage in the Church — received as a Sacrament — allows the Baptized parties of the marriage to share in the marital graces, given by God, to bless married life.

Mission Not Impossible. To this end, as Pastor of the parish, I want to commend our couples who are not married in the Church, to consider addressing that status. Many folks think that getting your marriage "blessed by the Church" is an arduous or even impossible task; in most cases, it is not. To this end, I would ask men and women, in non-Church marriages, to seek to amend that situation and come into the fold of those married in Christ.

How to Get Your Marriage Blessed in the Church: There are several different situations that entail slightly different actions to address marital status. To list all the possible circumstances would take a book the size of a Herman Wouk novel. So, I will focus on the three most common circumstances below. (For more complicated scenarios you will need speak to one of the Priests or Deacons in the Parish.)

1. If you are married civilly and this is your only marriage: If you are couple who, for whatever reason, married civilly, but not in Church — and you have only been married once — you can have your married "convalidated" in the Church (often referred to as "blessed in the Church"). This takes your civil marriage and makes it into a marriage in the Catholic Church.

- If you have been civilly married (or married in another faith without Church approval) for over four years, you need only to meet with one of our Priests or Deacons, complete a pre-marital inquiry to determine your marital status, and then a convalidation via the Catholic Rite of Marriage may be scheduled.
- If your civil marriage is more recent (four years or less), you may have to do pre-Cana preparation before the Convalidation of your marriage.

2. If you (or your spouse) are Catholic and had a previous civil marriage before this one: This is usually fairly simple. Since you (or your spouse) are Catholic and married outside of the proper Catholic form of marriage without permission of the appropriate Church authority, that civil marriage reflects a "lack of canonical form" and can be deemed null. This entails some paperwork. Once I get the approved documentation back from the Diocese (usually, in a week or two), we can get your Convalidation planned (and if married over four years, the simpler process noted above applies).

3. If you are Catholic and have a previous marriage in the Catholic Church (or married with Church permission in another Christian Church/location): In this circumstance, you may need an annulment. An annulment speaks to the questions of whether a marriage was validly contracted at the time of consent (i.e., was there duress, were there impediments, etc.). If it is deemed that the circumstances on the day of the marriage were not proper or that informed consent was impeded, an annulment may be issued, freeing you to marry. The good news is, is that process, with emendations put forth by Popes Benedict and more recently Pope Francis, has become much quicker (usually about six months or less).

Please note: If you are in a marriage currently, and you or your spouse are non-Catholic: If the non-Catholic party had been married previously, that original marriage of theirs is considered valid and thus an annulment process must ensue (as noted in #3 above).

Marriage in the Church. And so, I commend you: If you are married outside of the Church, seek to have your marriage convalidated (blessed) in the Church. This is the faith and teaching of your Church, moreover, this is the call of Jesus Christ to a man and a woman in the vocation of married life. Christ is asking: Do you want to do what is necessary to marry according to our faith and the laws of His Church: Please say, "I do."

Yours in Christ,
Fr. James Lentini, Pastor

2018 Annual Catholic Appeal "Disciples of Christ, Witnesses of Faith"

The 2018 Annual Catholic Appeal will be conducted in parishes throughout the diocese next weekend. Once a year, our Bishop asks each of us to make a commitment to support the work of diocesan programs and ministries that provide services that no one parish can offer on its own. Your gift helps bring Christ to those who seek His presence - the poor, the sick, the distressed, our children and our elderly.

Our parish target is $211,000. Your financial support of the Appeal also provides funding for our parish since 100% of monies collected above our target will be returned for our own ministry needs.

Please give prayerful consideration to your resources and the needs of those served by the Appeal. Kindly decide ahead of time the contribution you wish to make this year and come to church next week prepared to complete your pledge to offer your support.

To learn more about the Annual Catholic Appeal, visit www.cdow.org; click "Giving" then "Annual Catholic Appeal".

SCHOOL UPDATE

The heartbeat of the Catholic Church is Catholic Schools.

Bishop John Newman

As we find ourselves in the midst of the Holy Easter season, I thought it would be appropriate for us to take stock of one of the facets of the HCS experience that makes us most unique; that which sets us apart from all the rest...and that which parents appreciate in an education that combines Catholic faith and teachings with academic excellence. I know it's been said by those possessing far more wisdom than me, in that "pride goeth before the fall." I'm willing to take that fall I suppose, because I am exceedingly proud of our Catholic Identity at HCS!

One of the greatest blessings at Holy Cross is our faculty and staff of dedicated, caring, and effective men and women who always put our students first and foremost in providing an academic curriculum that integrates faith, service, culture and appreciation for life. Recently NCEA published a list of guidelines for emphasizing the mission and Catholic culture in our schools. I have included that list for your information. I am exceptionally delighted to be able to say that at HCS we have "nailed it" across the board!

Mission and Catholic Identity

- Provide faith formation for staff, such as a staff retreat.
- Participate in the Arch/diocesan Catechist certification program.
- Create a Spirituality Committee.
- Prepare for prayer services and school liturgies (themes, servers, Eucharistic ministers).
- Communicate a timeline and details about Sacramental Preparation and Ceremonies.
- Plan service projects.
- Use NCEA resources to plan Catholic Schools Week.

Each school year the Catholic schools in the Diocese of Wilmington observe a spiritual theme that we incorporate into our celebrations, lessons, and classroom activities. Previous spiritual themes have included the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy, as well as a yearlong celebration of the Holy Spirit. This year our theme is To Jesus Through Mary. At HC we have truly embraced this theme! Our Spirituality Committee has worked diligently in planning school wide events incorporating the theme for this year. I confess to having favorites...two of which include our Patriotic Rosary and our Christmas Rosary. Right now we are looking forward to our Living Rosary (our first ever!) celebration later this month as well as our schoolwide retreat day in early May when we will begin the day with our annual May Procession and Crowning of the Blessed Mother.

During the Lenten season one of our observances of The Stations of the Cross was through the eyes of the Blessed Mother. These stations, called Mary's Way of the Cross, present her viewpoint. We are given a glimpse of the agony suffered by both Jesus and his holy Mother as he walked the road to Calvary and his crucifixion. This particular rendition of the Way of the Cross is especially heart-rending, and our girls depict each station with the highest degree of piety and reverence.

A Catholic education is a priceless gift, an investment that will produce benefits over a lifetime. For those of us who have answered a call to the vocation of teaching; we, too, have been gifted over a lifetime. Thank you for entrusting your children to us, and may God continue to bless our schools.

Holy Cross School provides an academically rich, faith filled learning environment. At Holy Cross we strive to convey a sense of justice, peace, compassion and respect for all God's creation.

As the weeks go by, your baby's skeleton starts to harden from rubbery cartilage to bone, and he or she develops the ability to hear. You're likely to feel kicks and flutters soon if you haven't already.
