Information About Reception of the Sacraments

The seven Sacraments of the Church were instituted by Christ to confer grace.

Sacrament of Baptism. Call the parish office to register for the parents' pre-Baptismal instruction. For adults seeking to enter the Church and be Baptized, contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Penance (Confession). Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for Confession at age seven, as part of First Communion preparation.

Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for First Communion at age seven. Adults seeking First Communion should contact our Religious Ed. Office

Sacrament of Confirmation. Young people in our parish are prepared for reception of Confirmation in the ninth grade (age 14). For adults seeking Confirmation contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. Couples planning for Marriage are to contact a parish priest or deacon one year in advance to set the wedding date and plan for pre-Cana instruction.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. If you believe you have, or someone you know has, a vocation to the Priesthood or Diaconate, please contact one of our parish priests.

Anointing of the Sick. For the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick (sometimes called "Last Rites") administered by a Priest, a person or immediate family member must make the request. Late night requests may not be able to be answered until the next day. For a visitation to the sick, or Holy Communion to the sick, contact our parish office.

Dear Parishioners,

Back in the day, when comics were 12¢, when pay phones still existed, and when a TV remote control consisted of Mom or Dad telling one of the kids to change the channel, the Baltimore Catechism advised young people that: "Confirmation is a Sacrament through which we receive the Holy Spirit to make us strong and perfect Christians and soldiers of Jesus Christ." That simple sentence was part of the education for one receiving Confirmation. And it expressed the simple truth that once Confirmed a young person is called to battle evil, in their own life and in the world, to witness Jesus Christ to others, and to more perfectly live their Baptismal call.

The teaching of the Church, in the current Catechism of the Catechism (#1285), expands on that former definition. It tells us that "the reception of the sacrament of Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace" and that "By the sacrament of Confirmation, the baptized are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Hence, they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed."

I am pleased to tell you that some 62 young men and women, from Holy Cross and Immaculate Conception Parish, availed themselves, last Saturday, of the Sacrament of Confirmation. They reached the completion of the reception of their Baptismal grace at the hands of Bishop Francis Malooly, who, with the Sacred Chrism (holy oil), anointed them with a cross on their foreheads and spoke the words: "Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit." They replied "Amen" and are now Confirmed Catholics and full members of the faithful of Church. I ask your prayers for them in the days, weeks, months and years ahead, they may continue to be faithful witnesses of Christ who spread and defend the Catholic faith by word and deed.

These are our newly confirmed; this list shows their names along with their saint names adopted in the Sacrament of Confirmation.

SCHOOL UPDATE

Pipe-dreams. I'd venture to say that we all have them. I know I do. I actually have a favorite pipe-dream. I've enjoyed this particular one for years. I think it was born out of a fictional account I read of an older woman who lived in Scotland. The author, Rosamound Pilcher, recounted in great detail her years of living her life in Scotland, the picturesque landscapes, the lovely lochs, the gardens, the cliffs of prehistoric rock...I am so there! The protagonist of the story had an oversized stone fireplace in her small living room by which she would ride out the storms with a good book. Oh...my heart just longs! Ever since then I have wanted to move to Scotland. I never will. But I still revel in the pipe-dream. When I recant my pipe-dream to my husband, his Scrooge-like response is "Rain and bagpipes, I don't like either one!" Well, I do.

And so it was the sound of bagpipes that we heard as we grew closer to the Dover City Police Department on our walk through town carrying our big bouquet of green and white balloons. Mrs. Zink, the Student Council officers and I were on our way to the official swearing-in ceremony for Major Marvin Mailey, Jr. Major Mailey was to be sworn in as the DCPD new Chief of Police last Wednesday and we wanted HC to be in representation. Chief Marvin Mailey Jr. has been a good friend to Holy Cross in creating an open line of communication that never before existed. As we grew closer and closer, the sound of the bagpipes permeated the air. "Oh my gosh; they have bagpipes!" As I expressed my nervous excitement to my friends we busily tried to find an open access into the building. All of a sudden...bam!.....the door swung out and there stood Officer Davis. Officer Davis is also well known to our school and many of our students through his affiliation with the city's enormous soccer community. Officer Davis ushered us into the Community Room where the ceremony was to take place. Well, I do have to say we sort of stuck out like sore thumbs in our uniforms carrying balloons amidst all the dignitaries, a multitude of police officers from all over, and the local TV stations. But, I didn't care! Officer Davis showed us to our seat. Before we could be seated Major Mailey came back and offered each of us a warm welcome while thanking us for coming, and accepted our balloons with such humility and grace. So, we sat patiently while the room filled to capacity. It was exciting, and a good thing for our Student Council officers to see government in action. As we sat in anticipation of the ceremony, Mayor Christiansen arrived. We knew things would be underway soon. What with standing room only, it was a bit of a scrunch trying to get the Colors and bagpipes in line. I loved seeing the musicians all decked out in native Scottish dress. Finally, we were underway, the bagpipes preceded the advancement of the colors, everyone stood as we pledged our flag and an invocation was given. With his hand on the Bible and his right hand raised, the soon to be Chief of the Dover City Police Department repeated the terms of the Oath of Office as led by Mayor Christiansen. In a matter of minutes it was all over. There were shouts of joy in the room by all in attendance. Our small delegation joined the standing ovation as Mayor Christiansen introduced the former Deputy Chief as Chief Marvin Mailey, Jr.

Before long we were only our way back to 631 S. State Street with the Student Council officers discussing amongst themselves how nice it would be to stop for ice cream along the way. Yes, it would have been nice. But, sorry....no can do....

AAND...as I put the final touches on this piece for the week I have just returned from the parking lot where I met a big fancy bus that has just returned from Tennessee!! Each of our Chess players stepped off the bus with a trophy in hand. I TOLD YOU!!! We were going to win. And we did! As soon as I get all the details I'll pass them along. But for now we have a bunch of sleepy and travel weary boys and girls, a couple of lost hats, along with stories and memories for a long time to come! I say Checkmate to that!

COMMUNITY NEWS

Saint Thomas More

St. Thomas More Academy distinguishes itself with five pillars that work in concert to achieve our mission:

Pillar 1: Faith Focused

We are empowered by the Gospel teachings; we follow a daily practice of formation, information, and transformations. STMA students are required one theology class per year, participate in a school-wide celebration of the mass weekly, participate in annual grade-level specific retreats and incorporate prayer into our daily routine.

Check back next week to learn more about Pillar 2: Teacher Connected.

Vocations

In today's gospel, Jesus says “Whoever hears my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me.” Can you think of a better way to show one's love for Jesus than by seeking out God's will for your life? Finding God's plan involves listening and responding. If you think God might be calling you to serve the Church as a priest, sister, brother or deacon, and if you'd like to explore steps you can take to listen better, call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113; vocations@cdow.org). Be sure to visit our website: www.cdow.org/vocations!
