Wednesday of the Tenth Week in Ordinary Time

Who will be the greatest in the kingdom of Heaven?

The reading from 1st Kings explains that the Chosen People had strayed from God and began to follow Baal. Many times in scripture we are told to not tempt God, but Elijah set out to prove to the people the true God and he did it in a rather bold and brash way. The scriptures today begs us to reassess...the past few months we have been closed out of church and away from the Eucharist. Have we strayed and filled our time and thoughts with other things (Gods)? Are we ready to return? Masses return this week to our parish and because of the limitations still in place, not all will be able to attend mass on Sunday. Choose a day this week and attend mass at either noon or 6pm. We need to hear the word of God through the scriptures and to know the commandments so that we can live them and teach them to others. Then Jesus tells us that we could become the greatest in the kingdom. Let's start again this week to live Christ and him crucified, raised from the dead and he lives!
