Information About Reception of the Sacraments

The seven Sacraments of the Church were instituted by Christ to confer grace.

Sacrament of Baptism. Call the parish office to register for the parents' pre-Baptismal instruction. For adults seeking to enter the Church and be Baptized, contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Penance (Confession). Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for Confession at age seven, as part of First Communion preparation.

Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for First Communion at age seven. Adults seeking First Communion should contact our Religious Ed. Office Sacrament of Confirmation. Young people in our parish are prepared for reception of Confirmation in the ninth grade (age 14). For adults seeking Confirmation contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. Couples planning for Marriage are to contact a parish priest or deacon one year in advance to set the wedding date and plan for pre-Cana instruction.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. If you believe you have, or someone you know has, a vocation to the Priesthood or Diaconate, please contact one of our parish priests.

Anointing of the Sick. For the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick (sometimes called "Last Rites") administered by a Priest, a person or immediate family member must make the request. Late night requests may not be able to be answered until the next day. For a visitation to the sick, or Holy Communion to the sick, contact our parish office.

Dear Parishioners,

States! We have 50 of them in the United States. And each one of them has something to boast about. Hawaii is the state with the greatest life expectancy. Pennsylvania is the state with the most hunters. Mississippi has the most churches per capita. Maryland has the highest income. California has the highest income tax. Florida has the most retirees. Wyoming has the cleanest air. North Dakota has the most persons per capita over 100 years of age. Delaware has the most incorporations; 66% of all of the Fortune 500 companies. Missouri is bordered by more other states than any other state; it is bordered by eight states (dare I say that fact may serve to prove that “Missouri” loves company).

Moving Stories. So, going from state to state, there are certainly differences to be found, and yet all are still American soil. Visiting different states allows one to see the differences up close – that’s probably why TV’s Laverne and Shirley packed up and moved from Wisconsin to California in season six, and why Lucy and Ricky made the jump from New York to Connecticut in the final season of “I Love Lucy.” In each state there are difference and similarity – the latter being what binds us as Americans.

What Gives You Gas? In science there are also “states” – ways of being – as distinct and similar as our US states. For example, I am sure we all learned in elementary school science water exists in three states: solid (ice), liquid (Perrier or Aquafina) and gas (steam). It exists in three different manners or “states” – and yet it is still H₂O.

Holy Places. Similarly, the Catholic Church exists in three “states” – it exists as the Church here on earth, as the Church in heaven and as the Church in purgatory. Wherever God’s people are, there is the Church. While there are similarities between each state, there are also distinctions. In that regard, here is a brief overview regarding the three states in which the Church exists:

The Church Triumphant (The Church in Heaven). When talking about the communion of saints we most often think of the saints in heaven. These are those souls that rest in peace before the face of God, gathered around the Lamb, Jesus Christ. This is the Catholic Church in heaven is called Triumphant because its members have won the battle of earthly life, they are now in Heaven able to stand before the Beatific Vision of God. They are freed of all taint of sin, being fully holy, fully knowing God, fully loving God and seeing Christ, no longer under the veil of a Sacrament, but face-to-face. Any doubt experienced in earthly faith is washed away.

The Church Suffering (The Church in Purgatory). When talking about the communion of saints we probably least often think of those suffering souls in purgatory. The Catholic Church in purgatory is made up of those members of the Church Militant who died with temporal punishment due for sin. The way they are made purified for the Kingdom of Heaven is by abiding in purgatory and facing those aspects of their life and their soul that keep them “not yet ready” for Heaven. In purgatory, the members of the Communion of Saints are purged of any obstacles preventing them from seeing clearly, God, as he is.

The Church Militant (The Church on Earth). This is the Church that is the people of God on earth; it known as the Church Militant, as we on earth as still fighting the battle of daily life to win the victorious crown given saints in Heaven. In this Church we strive for holiness; to come to know, love and serve God. Here we receive Christ, but under the veil of a Sacrament.

Three in One. Let me be clear, the Church in Heaven, on Earth and in Purgatory are one- in-the-same the Catholic Church. Much as the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are three persons in one God, so the Church, though existing in three states is nonetheless one Church. The essence of the Church is the same “on earth as it is in heaven.” There is only one Church – the Catholic Church: it is one, holy, Catholic and apostolic. The key element of the Church when speaking in terms of it being a communion is word “one.”

Relating Heaven, Earth and Purgatory. In 1985, singer Belinda Carlisle of the rock band The Go-Go’s, topped the charts with a song called “Heaven is a Place on Earth.” Now, as heretical as that title might sound in doctrinaire terms, there is a touch of truth in it. At Mass we celebrate the feast of heaven and earth; it is a reflection of the heavenly banquet, with Christ as its center, and the saints gathered in ascendant praise. Likewise, at Mass we pray for the souls in purgatory. And so, Mass brings all those three states of the Church into view for us, around the Sacrifice of Christ.

All Saints. In this regard, coming up on Thursday, November 1, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. On that day we honor the Saints in Heaven, in the Church Triumphant, as we strive to one day join them. The collect (opening prayer) for Mass that day expresses that desire: “Almighty ever-living God, by whose gift we venerate in one celebration the merits of all the Saints, bestow on us, we pray, through the prayers of so many intercessors, an abundance of the reconciliation with you for which we earnestly long. Through our Lord Jesus Christ...”

All Souls. The next day, on Friday, November 2, we observe All Souls Day. On that day, we remember all the faithful departed and pray that they may rest in the peace of Heaven. The collect for All Souls Day expresses this hope: “Listen kindly to our prayers, O Lord, and, as our faith in your Son, raised from the dead, is deepened, so may our hope of resurrection for your departed servants also find new strength. Through our Lord Jesus Christ...”

So, in this life and into the next, the Church, the Catholic Church, the universal Church established by Christ for the salvation of all, abides. And, when November soon rolls around, we will remember that truth in a most direct, prayerful and significant way.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. James Lentini
Pastor

SCHOOL UPDATE

Many years ago there presented a need for me to have a second job, in addition to my daily responsibilities as a teacher. I enjoyed that position, it consumed all of my weekend hours, but I somehow managed to accomplish all of my duties, and keep up with my “day job.” I was much younger then, and the long hours didn’t seem to bother me. I was employed by a grocery chain in their in-store bakery. Periodically the grocery store would be visited by the regional supervisors and all of the departments had to look their spiffiest. I clearly remember my working the overnight shift to have the department up and running for the visit. The bakery manager came to work at 6:00 that morning. The walkthrough was to begin at around 7:00. To make a long story short, when the walkthrough was made in the bakery, the department manager claimed full credit for my work. She received the highest rating given for the department. She never said a word to me; I went home at the end of my shift.

I have never been one for overlooking the good and hard work of others. Any organization that is worth its weight in salt is dependent on the worker bee. The oft overlooked worker bee, that is. Last week I paid well-deserved recognition to our HSA. This weekend, thanks to their efforts we enjoyed another fun-filled Fall Festival. (I love alliteration!) The truth is that as an organization, Holy Cross School would be hard pressed to function effectively without the devotion of our happy group of volunteers. Our faculty and staff are grateful for their dedication and commitment.

On a daily basis our cafeteria runs like a well-oiled machine thanks to Mrs. Marian Stant; however, make no mistake; she will be the first to tell anyone that it would be a virtual impossibility without her steadfast volunteers. It’s been many years since their children graduated from HC, but one or two of those volunteers will still pitch-in when needed most on those special occasions such as the holiday feasts or one of our evening events. There would be no Ice-Cream Sundae day without our volunteers. Then what??

On any given day of the week, mom or dad will come rushing through the office, sign in and hurry to a classroom to serve for AR. Typically, they have to get to work once they have completed their appointed round. This is a tremendous help to the classroom teacher in the early morning as the school day unfolds.

We are so proud of our junior high athletes. HC offers many opportunities for them to shine in the sport of their choice. But they would be unable to do that without the expertise and faithfulness of our volunteer coaches. Over the expanse of a season, the hours of daily practice, and game time, not to mention the away games accumulates to a colossal number of unpaid hours.

But then....speaking of coaches, Mrs. Riecks and I are indebted to those who have volunteered to serve as OM coaches. Their guidance, enthusiasm and fervor coupled with the overall effort of the students have allowed us to be so successful in past competitions.

Our volunteers are more than just one or two of the vertebrae that make up the backbone of HCS. I have intentionally avoided naming names, for fear of overlooking someone. But, know that when reading this if you are a vital part of the backbone, you are much appreciated! God bless you.

Its handwritten lettering and stunning artworks truly present the Word of God in an engaging and inspirational way. Refreshments will be served beginning at 5:00 p.m. Come early and see The Heritage Edition of the Saint John's Bible that will be on display. This is a free event.

Vocations

Have you ever felt weak? Today's reading from the Letter to the Hebrews reminds us that Jesus, our High Priest, can sympathize with us in our weakness because he himself has been tested in every way. In other words, the author is saying that Jesus, who is truly God, is also truly human. In our day and age, Jesus calls truly human people to minister to his people as priests, deacons and religious. Could he be calling you? Call or write Fr. Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113; vocations@cdow.org). Come see our website: www.cdown.org/vocations!
