Information About Reception of the Sacraments

The seven Sacraments of the Church were instituted by Christ to confer grace.

Sacrament of Baptism. Call the parish office to register for the parents' pre-Baptismal instruction. For adults seeking to enter the Church and be Baptized, contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Penance (Confession). Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for Confession at age seven, as part of First Communion preparation.

Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for First Communion at age seven. Adults seeking First Communion should contact our Religious Ed. Office

Sacrament of Confirmation. Young people in our parish are prepared for reception of Confirmation in the ninth grade (age 14). For adults seeking Confirmation contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. Couples planning for Marriage are to contact a parish priest or deacon one year in advance to set the wedding date and plan for pre-Cana instruction.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. If you believe you have, or someone you know has, a vocation to the Priesthood or Diaconate, please contact one of our parish priests.

Anointing of the Sick. For the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick (sometimes called "Last Rites") administered by a Priest, a person or immediate family member must make the request. Late night requests may not be able to be answered until the next day. For a visitation to the sick, or Holy Communion to the sick, contact our parish office.

Dear Parishioners,

Each year our Parishes compile what is called “the October Count.” It is the official count of Mass attendance for weekends during October. This is done in all parishes through the Diocese of Wilmington.

Mass Influx. I am pleased to say that this year “October Count” shows Holy Cross with an increase in Mass attendance of 18% over last year – this is a very, very healthy increase. During the course of the month, the Parish experienced a 1,416 increase over last year in total monthly attendance (which moves our total monthly Mass attendance on a heading towards 10,000). Our 1pm Sunday Spanish Mass showed the strongest growth, while our 11am Sunday Mass is our consistently best attended Mass (followed by the 5pm, 9:15am and 6pm respectively). The only decline in attendance was at our 7:30am Mass, which took a very small 2% dip.

Meanwhile in Marydel. Immaculate Conception Parish shows equally good news. The Mass attendance report that for the Parish is simply incredible! Mass attendance at Immaculate Conception has increased 28.4% over last year, with all of our three Sunday Masses growing; the 8:30am Mass grew by 9%, the 11am by 18.7% and the 1pm Spanish Mass by a whopping 44.9%. In my first year here, only two of eight English language Mass in a month topped the 100 attendance mark – this year, that 100 mark was surpassed by seven of eight of those Masses. Regarding Spanish Mass at 1 pm, it yielded a cumulative attendance of over 1,000 (average of 252 per Mass each week).

Good News. It is good, and indeed heartening, to see our two Parishes grow even in these turbulent times for our Church. While numbers are never the whole story, they do mean something, and do they carry some weight. Our two parishes are both booming in Mass attendance, and it is my hope and prayer that that growth will continue in the year ahead. We are certainly doing something right at both Holy Cross and Immaculate Conception, as we are bucking the trend of decline found in other areas.

44 Shopping Days Until Christmas. I remember a number of years ago, my niece wanted a certain kind of purse for Christmas. My brother had indicated that it was ridiculously expensive. I thought to myself, “How expensive could a purse be?” So, I checked into it. Well, clutch the pearls, the purse that she wanted cost $400. This is not a misprint: $400. I wondered, what would make someone think she needs a $400 purse; I would submit it is the toxic cocktail mixture of peer pressure, advertising, and the vanity of glamor. And that’s not an isolated event. At different times and in different ways we can find ourselves falling prey to Devil’s version of the Home Shopping Network – you know, when you see something on HSN that you absolutely don’t need, won’t use and can’t afford, and yet you just have to have it. Much like HSN, it is best to just turn off the Devil, and turn to appreciating what God has given you.

Soul Survivors. During this month of All Souls, when we pray for the sweet repose of those gone before us, we need to remind ourselves that we are not praying for them to have a new car, a bigger TV, a larger house or scads of money. Because in the end, they don’t – and we won’t – need that. No! Those things, while nice, only have value here on this Third Rock from the Sun. But in the twinkling of an eye, those things can lose their meaning for us. What we pray for is that the poor soul finds rest, joy and repose with God.

Batman and Salvation. The culture we live in today, tells us that this world offers it all – all we will ever want, and all we will ever need. But those who hold that as a value are placing their trust in the idea that this world is all there is – and they are going to be disappointed because the Devil’s promises are empty. Because the things of this world – and yes, some of them are wonderful to have – are passing away ultimately. Even my sacred laptop and smartphone and DVD collection of the 1966 Batman TV series, each of which I enjoy, are nice but not necessary. They can’t bring me eternal rest, it can’t bring me salvation. It is nice to have nice things – and there is not a problem with that. But if you think the nice things are the best things there are, if you think this world’s goodies win the day, then at the end of day you will be disappointed.

Credit Card Not Required. For us as Catholics, the true value of Heaven, the true value of being with the Lord, is the greatest thing we can possess. And it doesn’t require a credit card, a purchase order or a lay-away plan. It requires you to use the gift of faith. And while you are certainly fine with using the things of this world, and owning the things of this world (heck, no one’s getting my Batman DVDs), do not let it distract from the eternal joy that we yearn for in hope. The shiny things of this world should not distract our eyes of faith from what God offers to each of us.

A Time for Thanks. As Thanksgiving approaches, be sure to thank the Lord for what you have...for your blessings, for the things of this world that bring you comfort, for your friends, for your family and for your faith. Be appreciative, and don’t confuse what you “need” with those things you merely “want.”

Bottom line: When temptation visits us and the Devil wants our attention: don’t buy the hype, don’t buy the false promises. Buy the truth: The treasures of Heaven outshine any glittery things this world has to offer. And, thank God for that.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. James Lentini
Pastor

SCHOOL INFORMATION

How many times have you been told that you're never too old to learn something new? It's indeed a fact that no matter the station in life, there's always something around the corner that we can learn to enrich our lives. It's clearly the reason that career professionals are always looking for opportunities to further enhance their ability to hone their skills to keep up with what's trending. Our teachers are no exception to the rule. We are so grateful for the funding made available through Title II which enables us to seek out opportunities for professional development. High-quality teaching is vital for student success. Our teachers are always exploring elements of effective professional development and leadership critical for growing and supporting great teachers. An impressive number of our faculty spend an abundance of their summer days taking on-line courses, or attending PD sessions both near and far as they place a concentrated effort on their growth; for the benefit of their students. Remember the Alaska trek? Mrs. Bolton and Mrs. Seeney will never forget their experience with their canine friends and fellow educators as they took part in the days leading up to what has been called the "Last Great Race on Earth." The occasions for memorable learning experiences have taken our teachers to New Orleans, Las Vegas, as well as nearby New Jersey and Philadelphia. They are highly commended for the zeal and passion that they, as educators possess that drives their thirst for more. And, for keeping that one student in mind that just might benefit from her dropping everything and flying off to who knows where, hoping to come back with a new approach or technique that could improve upon the learning experience of the child.

As Catholic educators we are also committed to the development of our spiritual growth. The importance of teacher formation in spiritual growth and in knowledge of the Catholic faith and daily living of the Gospel is critical to maintaining our Catholic identity. Everything in a Catholic school transmits the faith. From the way we answer school phones to the rehearsal schedule of our musical productions, from how we share meals in the cafeteria to how students are greeted at the school door. Everything we do teaches Catholic identity because our behavior shows what we value. Seeing ourselves not just as educators, but also as Catholic school educators enables the Catholic identity of the school to thrive.

And so, as those who have answered the call to teach, we are also bound to the further development of our spiritual growth. We get in our vehicles or hop on a bus, and head out of Dover! ----Road trip! In early October our teachers gathered for a day of spiritual development with Father John Solomon. The quiet beach setting was a perfect backdrop for personal reflection, renewal, and meditation. Our Faculty Retreat Day was spent in Lancaster, PA. Sight and Sound Theater was the destination. JESUS was the production we had longed to see. For a few hours we walked the streets of Galilee and Capernaum, experienced the cool winds of the raging storms, witnessed their masterful recreation of the miracles; and finally, the condemnation of Jesus.

It was joyous; it was sobering; it was an emotional experience; it was a story of Jesus' love for us. That love that drives us to be the teacher that He wants us to be, to follow the model that He is for us.

OTHER NEWS

Vocations

Recall today's gospel reading: "Jesus sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. . . A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them 'Amen I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood.'" If you feel called to join the countless women who have given their "all" to Christ and the Church throughout the centuries through the consecrated life, please call or write Fr. Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113; vocations@cdow.org). And check out our website: www.cdow.org/vocations!
