Information About Reception of the Sacraments

The seven Sacraments of the Church were instituted by Christ to confer grace.

Sacrament of Baptism. Call the parish office to register for the parents' pre-Baptismal instruction. For adults seeking to enter the Church and be Baptized, contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Penance (Confession). Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for Confession at age seven, as part of First Communion preparation.

Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for First Communion at age seven. Adults seeking First Communion should contact our Religious Ed. Office

Sacrament of Confirmation. Young people in our parish are prepared for reception of Confirmation in the ninth grade (age 14). For adults seeking Confirmation contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. Couples planning for Marriage are to contact a parish priest or deacon one year in advance to set the wedding date and plan for pre-Cana instruction.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. If you believe you have, or someone you know has, a vocation to the Priesthood or Diaconate, please contact one of our parish priests.

Anointing of the Sick. For the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick (sometimes called "Last Rites") administered by a Priest, a person or immediate family member must make the request. Late night requests may not be able to be answered until the next day. For a visitation to the sick, or Holy Communion to the sick, contact our parish office.

Dear Parishioners,

In 1958, the Crests regaled America with the hit “16 Candles” – counting up those lights on a cake as a way of celebrating a birthday. Elton John crooned lamentingly about the passing of Marilyn Monroe in his 1973 song, later a big hit, “Candle in the Wind.” As in pop songs, as in life, as in faith, candles can take on many roles and meanings for us – lit both for worship and in our need. In this column I want to take some time to wax philosophical on the topic of candles – and provide some “light” reading on this subject!

Minding your Beeswax. “Hey, Fonzie you shouldn’t park your motorcycle in the living room.” “Ayyy, Potsy, mind your beeswax.” This phrase of rebuke, meaning “mind your business,” was born of the fact that in the Victorian era, personal letters were sealed with beeswax for privacy. But in a very different way, the Catholic Church also commends us to “mind our beeswax.” You see, in the Catholic devotional and spiritual tradition, candles have a special place and a special meaning: they bring light into the world to dispel darkness, and they symbolize the light of Christ. Thus, we treat them with great regard in terms of proper usage. So, the Church dictates, as it has for centuries upon centuries, that candles being used for liturgical purposes should be composed primarily (51% at least) of beeswax.

What the heck is that all about, you may wonder? Well, it has to do with purity. Since Christ is to be treated reverentially, and since liturgy is a way in which we worship Christ, the Church rightly prescribes what is and is not permitted in liturgical rites. So, too, regarding candles, the Church defines what makes for a proper candle in liturgy (lest we see some God forsaken aroma therapy candle of the potpourri variety in a Church service). And so, the Church tells its ministers to mind their beeswax – to be sure they are using what is good, right, honorable and proper! A Church using a candle with less than 51% beeswax, may earn – dare I say – a Bee-minus!

Blaze, Paschal. The big enchilada of all candles in the Catholic faith is the Paschal Candle. This is the very tall candle – usually three to five feet high – that you commonly see in the sanctuary of a Church during the Easter season (and at other times placed near the baptismal font of the Church). Every Parish in the Catholic Church annually (at the Easter Vigil) prepares and blesses this candle, which is then processed, like the Biblical pillar of fire, into the darkened Church providing the light of Christ amidst the darkness. It is used during Baptisms and Funerals, and it is lit throughout the Easter season.

At Sixes and Sevens. According to Church liturgical law, for a Mass to be licitly (properly) celebrated there should be a minimum two candles at the altar. These candles are required to be made of 51% beeswax. By tradition and still noted in Church liturgical documents, there are commonly six candles by an altar – with a seventh added, if the Bishop of the Diocese is present.

Seeking Sanctuary. All Churches have a tabernacle, a Sacred Space in which the Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist is reserved. To indicate that our Lord is present a Sanctuary Lamp is kept lit. This is the lit candle or lamp that remains lit in the Church when all the other candles and lights have been put out. It is a visible sign of the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Church. Unlike candles at the altar or the Paschal candle, the “sanctuary lamp” may be an oil-based lamp, or a candle. Most sanctuary lamps are in fact candles, usually ones that burn for seven days.

Traveling Light. At a Mass or sacred ritual, candles are often used in procession into the Church. Usually in a procession, candles are found near the front of the line, commonly immediately behind the cross. Processional candles may be oil-based or wax. They are used to light the way for the entrance of the ministers into the Church, led by a processional Crucifix. These candles are usually mounted on metal or wooden posts or take the form of large candlestick holders.

Votives: My Friend Flicker! Uncle Luigi passes away and your mother tells you to go to the Church and light a candle for him. The candle that you light in the Church for Uncle Luigi is commonly called a “votive light.” A votive candle gets its name because the nature of it ties to a voluntary offering (a voted or chosen offering) of the person lighting it. So, the person then lights the candle, prays for the soul of Uncle Luigi and then makes an offering to the Church (usually some change or a dollar). There are also longer-burning votive candle, commonly called vigil lights (or candles), which burn in front of a holy image (keeping vigil with that image or object).

Advent: A Special Time Four Candles. On the first Sunday of Advent, most parishes display an Advent Wreath, which has four candles (three violet and one rose-colored). At the start of each of the four Sundays of Advent, one of the candles is lit; this makes the wreath burn brighter and brighter as Advent draws closer to Christmas, and the birth of the light of the world, Jesus Christ. The three violet candles represent the first, second and fourth Sunday in Advent, while the rose-colored one represents the third Sunday in Advent (“Gaudete Sunday,” or “joyful Sunday”), when the half-way point to the Christmas is passed. Yep, there is a light of the end of the tunnel of sin and darkness.

Candlemas: Year Wax. The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2 is traditionally called “Candlemas;” it occurs 40-days after Christmas. It used to mark the end of the Christmas season back-in-the-day. This is the day when people by tradition bring their candles to Church and have them blessed. These candles were blessed for the year and used by the faithful, to bring God’s light into their home. On note, a few candles, bound usually in a red bow, are also blessed on this day, and used the next day (Feb. 3, St. Blaise day) to bless throats.

And with the bottom of the page closing in, I know it is time to snuff out this column on candles and leave you with a final thought: We usually associate the word “wicked” with evil or bad things. However, when it comes to candles used in our faith, I would assert that these “wick-ed” little items can serve to draw us beautifully closer to holiness and the light of Christ.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. James Lentini
Pastor

SCHOOL INFORMATION

Catholic School Week Part II:

You may remember that Mother Nature had a slight impact on our plans for the celebration of Catholic Schools Week. Thanks to atypical weather conditions our five days was cut down to a mere three. Undaunted, we returned on the following Monday with plans and the grit and determination to put a cap on our celebration of the week's activities. Thursday could not arrive soon enough for just under 40 of our students who had long anticipated the annual school Talent Show. Additionally, there were 38 eighth graders who were chomping at the bit to show their predecessors how to beat the faculty/parent team in the game of volleyball. Speaking of grit and determination---they took the floor with a plan to win. And win they did! The first student team to beat the faculty in many years. Of course they had the surefire advantage with Alexia, Cassidy, Josselyn, Brooklyn, Mia and Kimmy who are practically professionals after training under the direction of Coach Clougherty; and then add in the rest of the eighth grade, all athletes in their own respect and there you have an undeniably winning combination. Congratulations to our eighth graders!! Well done indeed!!

It was along about noon thirty when I welcomed Miss Carol Ripkin to our fine school. We were so pleased to have her join us for an afternoon of entertainment in our Parish Hall where some of the finest talent south of the canal would be taking the stage in short order time. Taking full advantage of the fact that we had a dignitary in our midst, I grabbed the front row seat alongside of the one reserved for our guest. I believe I speak for both of us when I say Holy Cross has talent!! Song, dance, tai-kwon-do, and comedy rounded out the bill for the afternoon. The finale brought on the tears for many as the Jayme family announced their leaving HC due to a military re-assignment. Their polished performance of The Time of Your Life was made even more poignant by a power point consisting of numerous pictures of HC students and activities. Many thanks to Miss Ripkin for taking the time to join us; as principal of our school, I am only too proud and eager to share all of the gems that make up the crown that is our school. So as they say in show biz... that's a wrap! It's another CSW in the books; and it was great! On behalf of all the students, the faculty and staff, I extend a most sincere word of thanks to Mrs. Leslie Cote and Mrs. Suzanne McGowan who head up the Religion Committee for our school. Their indefatigable efforts to insure a week chock full of fun-filled activities along with opportunities for worship and prayer will make for lifelong memories of days spent in a Catholic school for us all.

It was my great pleasure to once again meet with a former student of HC who is enrolling her daughter in our Kindergarten for the 19-20 SY. In touring we stopped in to witness the din and excitement of the Volleyball game and to reminisce her days as a HC student. I very much enjoyed our time together as we talked of years past and her long held conviction that her children would share her experience as a Catholic school student at HC. My response to that?? Join the ranks of the dozens who have come before you...the "formers" who now teach at HC, and the "formers" who returned with the prized gift that is their child. I can't say it enough...HC, it's the best place on earth. Believe it!
