Information About Reception of the Sacraments

The seven Sacraments of the Church were instituted by Christ to confer grace.

Sacrament of Baptism. Call the parish office to register for the parents' pre-Baptismal instruction. For adults seeking to enter the Church and be Baptized, contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Penance (Confession). Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for Confession at age seven, as part of First Communion preparation.

Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for First Communion at age seven. Adults seeking First Communion should contact our Religious Ed. Office Sacrament of Confirmation. Young people in our parish are prepared for reception of Confirmation in the ninth grade (age 14). For adults seeking Confirmation contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. Couples planning for Marriage are to contact a parish priest or deacon one year in advance to set the wedding date and plan for pre-Cana instruction.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. If you believe you have, or someone you know has, a vocation to the Priesthood or Diaconate, please contact one of our parish priests.

Anointing of the Sick. For the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick (sometimes called "Last Rites") administered by a Priest, a person or immediate family member must make the request. Late night requests may not be able to be answered until the next day. For a visitation to the sick, or Holy Communion to the sick, contact our parish office.

Dear Parishioners,

Beep. Ring. Buzz. Bleep. Bing. Ding. Hmmm. Not as memorable as snap, crackle, pop, but far more relevant to everyday life these days than Rice Krispies. What those various sound effects refer to are the every day intrusion into our life of electronics and electronic devices. We hear them everywhere, and they kill the idea of true peaceful silence. We can't seem to get away from a text message ding, to a vibrating or ringing phone, to the calendar beeping on your iPad or Android tablet, to a smoke alarm beeping egregiously longing for a new battery, to our vehicles which beep, buzz and bleep for everything from seatbelt reminder to tire pressure notice, to appliances that beep and message you, day and night.

Say What?! Likewise, we have devices that hum, or even talk to us. One of the creepiest experiences I had was on a former cell phone I had, which, one night as I was preparing to go bed announced to me: "Hello, I notice that you tend to go to bed around 10pm, would you like me to set an alarm to remind you of that each night?" As Robin might have said to Batman in their 1960s TV series: Holy Invasion of Privacy Batman! It is like a dystopian technological horror movie, and we have cast ourselves in this film by giving up our peace of mind, and peace and quiet, in return for convenience. Not to appear as a clerical version of a Luddite, but I don't know how much better these devices, gadgets, services, and surveillance gizmos have made our lives.

People vs. Things. But, this is part of our love-hate relationship with technology. I use technology: my iPhone, iPad, my desktop and laptop computers, streaming video (i.e., Netflix), GPS and so on. But, I must confess, I have become more resistant to all of it in recent years. For instance, unless I'm on hospital call, my phone is silenced – not set to vibrate, but silent. I don't use Facebook or Twitter. I refuse to use EZPass, because I enjoy kibitzing with toll takers as I pass through their booths, and I help keep them employed, too. It provides me with a human connection, which is also why I don't have an online bank, but a brick and mortar one.

Two Problems. So, what am I getting at, with this stream of consciousness blather about technology? I would say that, as your Pastor, I am seeing two trends from the electronic orchestra that our life has become. First, there is a lack of silence and a continuum of distraction, brought to us by our electronic devices. Secondly, there is less and less human contact as we replace human interaction to electronic interaction (e.g., dealing with an ATM instead of a teller, EZPass instead of a toll taker, email instead of personal writing, a Facebook post instead of a phone call or a visit, etc.). These two ramifications of electronic devices and services are depriving us (if we allow them) of silent, undivided time with God, as well as uninterrupted time with people. It replaces human contact with digital convenience.

Silent Night? I was reading a biography of singer I enjoy, and one of her laments was that she can no longer enjoy silence – she notes that even at night there is the humming of this device or that device, a dinging this and a beeping that. When I read that, I could not hope but to concur with her lament. Where can we go for true silence and separation from the worldly, now that we have been conditioned to never leave our phone at home, or to walk around without a freakin' earpiece in our ear keeping us always connected, or to be in perpetual walking-with-earbuds mode. What the heck have we done to ourselves?

Some-ding in the Way he Moves. In last week's Gospel, Jesus went into the desert, and there the Devil made moves to tempt Him. Really what the Devil did, is the only thing that the Devil can do – like a cellphone "ding," he can only distract us and get us to look away from God, prayer or contemplation. Jesus then puts the smack-down on the Devil and reconnects to his spiritually strengthening time in the desert. The Devil can take many forms, and distraction is a big one. So many people tell me that they are distracted by this or that, and have a hard time concentrating at Mass or listening for God in prayer. But, if you're waiting for your next ding on the cellphone, then you are inherently unable to give your full attention to prayer. I think it might be wise for all of us, each of us, to be sure to set silent time aside to pray and to connect with our Lord. So, turn off the phone, and experience some time in the desert with Jesus. Quiet time.

The Human Touch. Singer Rick Springfield in 1984 sang, "We all need the human touch." Indeed, we do. So, in addition to quiet time, let's at least spend some time with other human beings (rather than machines).

- * Rather than doing a drive-thru, walk into the fast food joint and engage with the person at the counter.
- * Rather than only using the ATM, go into your bank, say good morning to the teller, and conduct your business there.
- * Rather than posting on a friend's Facebook page or texting him, call or visit that friend.

I'm not advising to never use ATMs, a Drive Thru, Facebook or text messaging, but put it in proper perspective. Don't let it isolate you from encountering real flesh-and-blood human beings.

iPhone Anonymous. Last year, I went away during the summer and for about 4-5 days, I didn't use my phone, my iPad or my computer. It was like going through a detox. After a day without dings, beeps, texts, emails, etc., I felt like a new man: my mind was less cluttered, I was more focused, and I was more spiritually contemplative. And best of all, when all was said and done, it turns out that I really didn't miss the technology all that much. It was an amazing desert experience for me!

As Jesus went into the desert, I commend you follow him there for a while. Unplug. Disconnect. Tune out. You don't have to go Amish, or Luddite; just moderate your time in cyber-reality. Amidst a world of noise, seek a desert of silence, just for a while. Jesus reminds us, in word and deed, that we are called to love God and neighbor, let's strive to find time to encounter both during this Season of Lent.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. James Lentini
Pastor

SCHOOL INFORMATION

The one thing I don't like about New Year's resolutions is the failure to follow through. It takes a lot of self-discipline and motivation to keep that one promise to oneself, and it's worse when you've made that promise to someone else. Then you find yourself unable to live up to the firm conviction made a few weeks back at the dawn of the new year. It's self-defeating. It's a miserable feeling. But don't beat yourself up. My resolution went out the window months ago. Long gone are the promises to get home earlier, drink more water, and

So now we find ourselves in the season of Lent when we once again have the same opportunities to make things right. Only in Lent there's more the feeling of obligation, a commitment has been made that somehow means more than a New Year's resolution. Or, at least it should. In Lent, we commit to fasting, as well as giving up certain luxuries in order to replicate the account of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ's journey into the desert for 40 days. This carries a great deal more significance than the turning of the calendar page to the month of January. At HCS we, as a faculty are deeply embroiled in finding different and creative ways of teaching the history behind and the holy significance of the Lenten season. I would propose that our families partner with us to form a united front where the message is sent that Lent matters! Yes, we are in the season; but it's not too late to get started---don't wait until next year. Get started, this is only the second Sunday. You have plenty of time to make this a holy and meaningful family experience. Here are a few ideas....

1. Set up an almsgiving box-- you simply set out a box, and take 1 thing from your own pantry every day of Lent. At the end of Lent, take the box to a food pantry.
2. Pray the sorrowful mysteries of the rosary together- daily, weekly, whatever works for your family. If this feels overwhelming with little ones, try just 1 decade.
3. We will be participating in the Sacrament of Reconciliation as a school, however, it's always a good idea to go to confession as a family.
4. At Holy Cross the Knights of Columbus sponsor the Friday evening Fish Fry. How about that? A family outing, good food, and no cooking! And then....go to Stations!
5. How big of a challenge are YOU up for? Here's a big one. Decide 1 day of the week during Lent to go "screen free" as a family.
6. Light a candle at church on Sunday.
7. Don't throw away that pickle jar! Wash it real good and place it on the kitchen counter. Everyone sees it, and can put a few cents in; spare change is all it takes. At the end of Lent, give it as a donation,
8. Add a few shades of purple to the home décor--put a purple table cloth out on the table. Explain liturgical colors to your children.
9. About that table, does your family have a prayer table in the home? Your children see them in all of our classrooms. Don't let this concept of gathering for prayer be reserved for the classroom. It doesn't have to be just a "school thing."
10. The most important one of all is not so hard....save the Easter celebration for Easter.

Life doesn't stop during Lent. We still have our commitments, our never-ending list of things to do. Find a few minutes of family time for Lent. Lent matters!

NUESTRA FAMILIA

- Edición especial del Foro Cristiano como parte de la preparación para la Cuaresma. Presentaremos la serie "Los 33 Testigos de la Crucifixión". Venga, conozca a estos personajes y viva los momentos que ellos vivieron. La serie es de ocho semanas que termina con la Vía Crucis en vivo a las 9:00 de la noche en la iglesia.

What does your baby look like now? Follow your baby's development week by week, from conception to labor. 8 weeks: our baby has started moving around, though you won't feel movement yet. Nerve cells are branching out, forming primitive neural pathways. Breathing tubes now extend from his throat to his developing lungs. Your baby is the size of a kidney bean.

- Euthanasia is wrong in any of its forms. Respect life from conception to natural death.

Holy Cross Samaritans

Our Samaritan Food Program is starting to collect hams and other food items that will be needed for our Easter Basket given out in April. You can leave any hams in the freezer on the side porch of the Rectory. We need boxed and canned items also: canned vegetables, canned fruit, cereal, peanut butter, jelly, soups, juices, instant potatoes, etc.). Nonperishable items should be left in the box in the lobby area of the Gathering Space of the church. Thank you for your generosity.

PARISH NEWS

Lector Meeting

There will be a meeting on Monday, March 25, at 6 pm in the Church for all of our current Lectors. Deacon John will review procedures, answer questions, update our Mass preference times, etc. All lectors are asked to attend. The meeting will be for approximately one hour.

Extra-Ordinary Ministers Needed

Holy Cross is in need of more Extra-Ordinary Ministers to help assist during our liturgies and/or to take Holy Communion to our homebound and nursing homes. We definitely need you to volunteer to help with this important ministry. We are offering a training class on Saturday, March 30, from 10 am to Noon, on the second floor of the Early Learning Center. Please call the Parish Office to register so we can prepare the proper materials. Thank you for considering helping with this important ministry.

Men of Malvern

In today's world of 24/7 sound bites, nonstop commercials, loud music and the like, it can be difficult to hear the really important voices in our life. Sometimes we just need a quiet, safe place where we can listen to our God who knows us, loves us and wants to tell us what is best for us. The Malvern Retreat House is such a place. Join the men of our parish the weekend of May 3 through May 5 for their Malvern retreat. To learn more, contact Deacon Bob at 697-9714, Don Crews at 674-0944, Ken Smith at 674-1704, or Harvey Speed at 983-4223.

Help wanted

Volunteers are needed for the St. Vincent DePaul Society; Holy Cross Church, to help in our prison ministry program. Volunteers are needed to assist prisoners after release to obtain their Social Security cards, Medicare/Medicaid card and state identification. Training is available. For further information please contact: Joe McLaughlin/Keith Seirs at 302-382-3260.

Fridays in Lent

- Enjoy a fish dinner, 4:00—7:00 pm; $12 adults, children $6
- Receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation, 5:30 pm
- Listen to a talk and learn about your faith, 6:00 pm
- Pray the Stations of the Cross, 7:00 pm.

Newly Baptized

Welcome to our newest members who were recently baptized:

- Alise Sofia Tanner
- Alana Maria Tanner

New Parishioners

Welcome to our newly registered parishioners:

- Marie and Ermino DeCarolis
- Pauline Hagen, Gilbert Gonzales, and Justin Holderbaum
- Bailey Williams
- Edward and Barbara Shay

Rosary Rally

You are invited to participate in a Rosary Rally on Saturday, March 23, at Noon to help strengthen and support the Sacrament of Marriage in America. Our rally will take place in front of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Statue weather permitting (inside church if inclement weather). Bring your rosaries and the whole family. Our Lady of the Rosary wants all of you here.

OTHER NEWS

St. Thomas More

Spring Open House at Saint Thomas More Academy on Wednesday, March 20th 5pm-7pm

Come and learn what amazing opportunities your child can experience academically, socially, and through extracurricular programs at STMA. Tuition rates starting as low as $8,000. Scholarship and Need-based Grants and Aid are also available. Did you know that the Class of 2018 was offered over $6 million dollars in scholarships and grant monies? If you are interested in spending a day at STMA or learning more about STMA, we encourage you to visit us in person or through our website www.saintmore.org

Lenten Series

The Diocese of Wilmington is presenting a multimedia Lenten series titled, "Holy Boldness: A Journey through Lent with Four American Saints," that will be distributed via digital video, radio broadcasts, and podcasts. Written and hosted by Fr. Rich Jasper, Associate Pastor of Saint Ann Church in Wilmington, the four-part series uses the lives and examples of four holy Americans to help individuals and families get the most out of the Season of Lent and prepare spiritually for the celebration of Christ's resurrection at Easter. Each 15 minute presentations will debut on Saturday afternoons at 5:00 p.m. during the first four weeks of Lent on the diocesan YouTube channel, YouTube.com/DiocesefWilm. The next morning, the presentation will be included on Catholic Forum on WDEL and available via podcast at cdow.org/CatholicForum or by searching Catholic Forum on Apple, Spotify or iHeartRadio podcasts. The videos, podcasts, and additional Lenten resources are also available at cdow.org/lent.

Food Assistance Program

Catholic Charities Food Assistance Program will be making its monthly food cooperative distributions to Kent County clients at the Church of the Holy Cross on March 26, 2019. The food cooperative provides a monthly supplement of food basics to income-qualified clients, as well as recipes for the products featured in the distribution and information about nutrition and food shopping on a budget. Anyone interested in participating in the program should call 302-684-8694 and ask to speak to the food program coordinator. Information is also available in the Parish Office. Catholic Charities also welcomes cash donations to supplement the program.

Cleaning out your closets??

The Holy Cross School Home and School Association will be collecting used clothing, linens, and plush toys. These textiles turn into cash for the school while helping those in need. Bring your items in plastic trash bags to the Gathering Space during the weekend of April 6/7 only. The HSA will work with A&E Clothing Corp to get the items to those in need while bringing funds directly to Holy Cross School. Thank you for your continued support of Holy Cross School!

You are invited to the "Unplanned" movie red carpet event on March 28

On Thursday, March 28, 2019, the St. Thomas the Apostle Columbiettes and the Knights of Columbus Council #12374 are hosting a red carpet premiere of the new film, "Unplanned: The True Story of Abby Johnson" at Penn Cinema at the Riverfront in Wilmington, Delaware. The evening will begin at 5:45 with a cocktail social; the screening will begin at 7:00 p.m. The film, opening in theaters nationwide on March 29, is the dramatic account of a former Planned Parenthood high achiever, Abby Johnson, their youngest clinic director in the nation, until she walked out after assisting in an abortion. Tickets are $15.00 each and can be purchased at www.eventbrite.com. Seating is limited and tickets are first come first serve. Email for info 12374Columbiettes@gmail.com.
