Information About Reception of the Sacraments

The seven Sacraments of the Church were instituted by Christ to confer grace.

Sacrament of Baptism. Call the parish office to register for the parents' pre-Baptismal instruction. For adults seeking to enter the Church and be Baptized, contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Penance (Confession). Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for Confession at age seven, as part of First Communion preparation.

Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for First Communion at age seven. Adults seeking First Communion should contact our Religious Ed. Office

Sacrament of Confirmation. Young people in our parish are prepared for reception of Confirmation in the ninth grade (age 14). For adults seeking Confirmation contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. Couples planning for Marriage are to contact a parish priest or deacon one year in advance to set the wedding date and plan for pre-Cana instruction.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. If you believe you have, or someone you know has, a vocation to the Priesthood or Diaconate, please contact one of our parish priests.

Anointing of the Sick. For the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick (sometimes called "Last Rites") administered by a Priest, a person or immediate family member must make the request. Late night requests may not be able to be answered until the next day. For a visitation to the sick, or Holy Communion to the sick, contact our parish office.

Dear Parishioners,

As TV series begin to go into reruns, I will share a secret – this week's column is a rerun. You see, this past week I have been away for a few days get some down time. Please note, that having given up fast food for Lent, it is likely that I will have been bunking in various McDonald's throughout the mid-Atlantic region during my vacation travels, making up for lost time. Being away, I decided to use a column that I have used once each year over the past few years on the important topic of marriage. And so, on this Divine Mercy Sunday, I want to share God's great mercy and avail folks of the gift and blessing Christian marriage and exhort folks who are perhaps living together or who were perhaps married outside the Church, to consider getting married (or getting their marriage "blessed") in the Church.

Ratings, Weddings and Genies. TV lover that I am, I can remember back in 1970, watching the wedding episode of "I Dream of Jeannie" when in a play for better ratings, using wedding-based glitz and glamor, Jeannie and Major Nelson (a lady genie and her astronaut beau) tied the knot. Alas, not even a genie and a wedding could save the show; it was soon cancelled. This episode "I Dream of Jeannie" tell us something about weddings and marriages that life experience confirms. A wedding should not be about show and flash, or glitz and glamour; rather it should solemnly celebrate the first day of a lifetime of a marriage of a man and a woman.

Wedding Bell Blues? In our world today, weddings seem to have taken on a greater importance than the marriage itself. There are wedding TV shows, wedding registries, wedding planners, and a whole host of things that have made weddings the second largest expense in a person's life, after buying a home. The problem with this is that "the wedding" has become the focus of attention, while marriage has become some mere echoed after effect. To make an analogy, it would be like having a child and making the entire focus on the child's birth, and then once he's born, tossing him aside and just looking back on that birth event.

Gifts and Marriage. To be clear, in the Catholic Church, there is a not a Sacrament of Wedding; there is a Sacrament of Marriage. The focus of that Sacrament is not on the event (the wedding), but on the vocation (married life). Thus, I often tell couples preparing for marriage to stop watching TV wedding shows. Why? Because marriage is not about the "event" of a wedding but, rather, about a life spent together. Thus, while a wedding passes into history in a few hours (after the cutting of the cake and the receiving of some Kenmore blenders, gift cards, and perhaps a set of Ginsu knives), the marriage endures. And marriage in the Church — received as a Sacrament — allows the Baptized parties of the marriage to share in the marital graces, given by God, to bless married life.

Mission Not Impossible. To this end, as Pastor of the parish, I want to commend our couples who are not married in the Church, to consider addressing that status. Many folks think that getting your marriage "blessed by the Church" is an arduous or even impossible task; in most cases, it is not. To this end, I would ask men and women, in non-Church marriages, to seek to amend that situation, and come into the fold of those married in Christ.

How to Get Your Marriage Blessed in the Church: There are several different situations that entail slightly different actions to address marital status. To list all the possible circumstances would take a book the size of a Herman Wouk novel. So, I will focus on the three most common circumstances below:

1. If you are married civilly and this is your only marriage: If you are couple who, for whatever reason, married civilly, but not in Church — and you have only been married once — you can have your married "convalidated" in the Church (a.k.a. "blessed in the Church"). This takes your civil marriage and makes it into a marriage in the Catholic Church.

If you have been civilly married (or married in another faith without Church approval) for over four years, you need only to meet with one of our Priests or Deacons, complete a pre-marital inquiry to determine your marital status, and then a convalidation via the Catholic Rite of Marriage may be scheduled. If your civil marriage is more recent (four years or less), you may have to do pre-Cana preparation before the Convalidation of your marriage.

2. If you (or your spouse) are Catholic and had a previous civil marriage before this one: This is usually fairly simple. Since you (or your spouse) are Catholic and married outside of the proper Catholic form of marriage without permission of the appropriate Church authority, that civil marriage reflects a "lack of canonical form" and can be deemed null. This entails some paperwork. Once I get the approved documentation back from the Diocese (usually, in a week or two), we can get your Convalidation planned (and if married over four years, the simpler process noted above applies)

3. If you are Catholic and have a previous marriage in the Catholic Church (or married with Church permission in another Christian Church/location): In this circumstance, you may need an annulment. An annulment speaks to the questions of whether a marriage was validly contracted at the time of consent (i.e., was there duress, were there impediments, etc.). If it is deemed that the circumstances on the day of the marriage were not proper or that informed consent was impeded, an annulment may be issued, freeing you to marry. The good news is, is that process, with emendations put forth by Popes Benedict and more recently Pope Francis, has become much quicker (usually about six months or less).

Please note: For more complicated scenarios you'll need speak to one of our Priests or Deacons. Also, if you are in a marriage currently, and you or your spouse are non-Catholic: If the non-Catholic party had been married previously, that original marriage of theirs is considered valid and thus an annulment process must ensue (as noted in #3 above).

Marriage in the Church. And so, I commend you: If you are married outside of the Church, seek to have your marriage convalidated (blessed) in the Church. This is the faith and teaching of your Church, moreover, this is the call of Jesus Christ to a man and a woman in the vocation of married life. Christ is asking: Do you want to do what is necessary to marry according to our faith and the laws of His Church? I hope you say, "I do."

Yours in Christ,
Fr. James Lentini, Pastor

SCHOOL INFORMATION

The typical school year calendar contains three major holidays which mark time set aside for family celebrations. I refer, of course, to the Thanksgiving holiday and the Christmas and Easter seasons. I feel I can speak with some degree of authority when I say that as a faculty we all look forward to the respite that these holidays bring despite the fact that following Thanksgiving and Christmas I have often remarked that we need to return to school to get a little rest. There's a bunch of work to be done over Thanksgiving and Christmas! The one season of the year I look forward to the most is Easter. It's a wonderful season for renewal of spirit. In years past I have always been a naysayer when it comes to those who attest to mood adjustments with the meteorological seasons, but as I've gotten older I have to jump on the bandwagon with those whose attitude perks up, there's a little spring (no pun....) in the step, and a bit of a twinkle in the eye.

So it is with great hope and anticipation that when we return to school in April that we do so much rested and with a rejuvenated spirit! We are going to need it. As I've said many a time over the past few decades, the springtime of a school year brings with it non-stop frenzy. We'll keep a box of Wheaties by the faculty mailboxes. In the less than forty days left in the school year, there are over twenty events that involve our school children and faculty. And so, it is time now to mark your calendars. For the sake of brevity, I will not list all of the events. Ample communication will be sent home as a reminder of all events, my hope is that you will be there with us to celebrate all that is good at Holy Cross. Our students have worked so hard, and many of these events will showcase the fruits of their labor as well as the colossal amount of talent that they possess. I know I'll see you there.

- Chick-Fil-A Night in Camden---Love those nuggets! Food and fellowship, an unbeatable combination!
- Annual May Procession and School Wide Retreat---Come join us in procession as we Rejoice in the Lord!
- Eighth Grade Scholars Convocation---Our academic scholarship awardees spend an evening with our Bishop.
- Art Show in the PH---You simply must see the pieces of art produced by our students. No hyperbole intended; it is astonishing!
- Our annual Penny Drive is coming up!!! Save all that spare change.....maybe a few dollar bills, too.
- Our annual Spring musicals are right around the corner---I always get a little verklempt and teary eyed..so blasted much talent!
- Our HSA Crusader Walkathon is an event we are all so excited about; a bit of a new flavor tossed in the mix of the tried and true.
- The last of our Parent Child events, the Father-Son Camping trip. Toss the gear in the back of old SUV and pray....no raindrops this year.
- Dover Days!!! Strike up the band!
- Nothing spells springtime more than our Field Day events. You don't have to be an athlete to be a star, and don't forget the sunscreen!
- Field trips, interims, report cards, graduations, award ceremonies, prayer services in the ELC----I could go on and on.

Keep your ears and eyes open because this is only a smattering of events to come. Before we know it, I'll be back to empty rooms and hallways...bring on the tears.

And for many moms-to-be, early pregnancy symptoms like morning sickness and fatigue have faded away. If you're feeling more energetic now and haven't been exercising, it's a good time to start a regular pregnancy fitness routine.
- God's law is the Ten Commandments....THOU SHALT NOT KILL. Man made laws may be wrong. Abortion is always WRONG!

“Lost indeed are those who kill their own children out of folly, with no basis in knowledge, forbidding what God has provided for them...” ~Anonymous
