Information About Reception of the Sacraments

The seven Sacraments of the Church were instituted by Christ to confer grace.

Sacrament of Baptism. Call the parish office to register for the parents' pre-Baptismal instruction. For adults seeking to enter the Church and be Baptized, contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Penance (Confession). Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for Confession at age seven, as part of First Communion preparation.

Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for First Communion at age seven. Adults seeking First Communion should contact our Religious Ed. Office

Sacrament of Confirmation. Young people in our parish are prepared for reception of Confirmation in the ninth grade (age 14). For adults seeking Confirmation contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. Couples planning for Marriage are to contact a parish priest or deacon one year in advance to set the wedding date and plan for pre-Cana instruction.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. If you believe you have, or someone you know has, a vocation to the Priesthood or Diaconate, please contact one of our parish priests.

Anointing of the Sick. For the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick (sometimes called "Last Rites") administered by a Priest, a person or immediate family member must make the request. Late night requests may not be able to be answered until the next day. For a visitation to the sick, or Holy Communion to the sick, contact our parish office.

Dear Parishioners,

This month our Parishes will celebrate First Communion with a large number of our young people. Next Saturday (May 11), teens from Holy Cross, Immaculate Conception, St. Polycarp (Smyrna), St. Dennis (Galena), St. John the Apostle (Milford) and St. Bernadette (Harrington), will gather at Holy Cross to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. With this flurry of sacramental activity abounding, I thought that this would be a good time to spend a column about the Sacraments -- the seven sacraments instituted by Christ to confer grace on his faithful.

None in a Habit? There was a book published in 1989 entitled "The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People." It was one of those self-help books, and it was wildly popular. I just checked Amazon.com today and noticed that that book -- after 30 years on the market -- is still ranked among the top 200 sellers in America and ranked #12 in one of Amazon's business categories. The book invites its reader to adopt seven habits -- seven behaviors -- that allow people to transform their lives and achieve greatness; it calls them to develop some of these habits where, in fact, they may have none. I am not a big fan of self-help books, as the persons they mainly serve to help are the authors, the publishers and Amazon. However, this "Seven Habits" book did something at the time, that many other self-help books did not do: It invoked God. It juxtaposed the low-expectations and cultural tendencies of the day against principles based in natural law (i.e., the moral meaning of humanity -- who we are, why we exist, etc.). It posited that if a person engages, or at least recognizes the importance of, the seven habits, he will be a better person.

The Seven. The Church likewise puts forth a list of seven items that can lead to personal change; we call them the seven Sacraments. These are seven encounters with Christ that change us to be in communion with, and at one with, the God who gave us life. They are: Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist, Penance, Anointing of Sick (sometimes called Extreme Unction or Last Rites), Holy Orders and Marriage. Each of these Sacraments, though distinct, give a share in God's Divine Life which we commonly call Sanctifying Grace. In each of these sacraments, those willingly receiving the Sacrament have an encounter with Christ that affects them on the ontic level of their soul. While there are other ways of receiving grace, Sacraments provide the faithful with a guarantee, a promise, of an encounter with Christ.

Of Sacraments, UPS and Logistics. The United Parcel Service (UPS) had a recent ad campaign focusing on "logistics" -- namely how the company gets a product from here to there through the mechanism of its delivery service. There is an analogy to be made here, that Sacraments are perhaps a form of Divine logistics. How is that? Well, the Sacraments, as the Church has taught consistently over its life, are outward signs instituted by Christ to confer grace. That is to say, Christ designated key visible symbols (which the Church identifies as "matter") and a method or structure in which to use them (which the Church identifies as "form") as ways of receiving His grace. For lack of better term, and perhaps being a bit flip, I would say that Sacraments are grace delivery systems -- they provide logistics for Sanctifying Grace. They are guaranteed ways of receiving God's grace for specific purposes. And they are even delivered on Sunday! Take that UPS!

Meta-physical Education. Okay, so sacraments confer grace... but how? Well, to understand the Sacraments one first must understand a little about metaphysics. Metaphysics is the study of the science (knowledge) of the world unseen, or as might be more traditionally put, the supernatural realm. When we speak of angels, heaven, purgatory, hell, etc., we are speaking of that realm beyond the natural, and we dub it "super" natural. You might be asking yourself, "Hey, what on earth, do sacraments -- which we can see -- have to do with the supernatural realm?" Good question! And the good answer is that Sacraments have everything to do with the supernatural realm (the world unseen).

Merge Ahead. When a sacrament is confectioned (made present), the proper minister must be present, the appropriate "matter" must be at hand, and the appropriate "form" must be used. When all of those elements are in place, combined with the intention of the Church, the natural realm (visible) and the supernatural realm (invisible) converge -- the presence of Christ is made manifest. Because these seven Sacraments, as mentioned, were instituted by Christ, they are repeated by the Church and its ministers today, just as they were carried out by Christ himself.

Sign Here? What about the recipient of a Sacrament? What exactly occurs when a person receives a Sacrament? Well, there is -- from time-to-time, in heretical circles -- a fashionable, but a wrong, consensus that Sacraments are merely a sign of Christ's presence. It further holds that that "sign" of Christ's presence brings calm, happiness and an Oprah-esque peace to the person, thus making them feel all good, warm and fuzzy inside. And, hey, isn't that what it's all about? Well, no, that is not what it is all about!

Close Encounters. The person who receives a Sacrament receives more than the simple sign. The person receiving a Sacrament is receiving an encounter with Christ, our Lord and our God. In that encounter, one receives Sanctifying Grace -- a prescient share in God's Divine life -- and it will make him holy and pleasing to God. For this to occur propitiously, a person must be in a state of grace when receiving a Sacrament (except for Baptism and Penance); that Sanctifying Grace abides within us unless we lose it by placing ourselves in mortal sin.

Of Death and Taxes and... It is said that in life we can only be sure of death and taxes. However as Catholics, we have a third item even more certain than death and taxes: Christ's presence to us in the Sacraments. It can be said that certitude -- that is, the certainty of God's presence -- is both the joy and the burden of being Catholic. Knowing that God is with us and that he allows us to be able to share in his Divine Life, makes the Good News of Jesus Christ more than just a nice sounding story. It makes it part of our lives. Christ is risen, and Christ is with us! What a blessing!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. James Lentini
Pastor

CHWC Steubenville:

For those teens attending work camp this summer, we will have our final meeting on Tuesday, May 28 beginning at 7:30 pm in the Luke Room of the ELC building.

Paper work will be collected, final details discussed. PLEASE BE THERE.

SCHOOL INFORMATION

One of the many tasks we are charged with at this time of year is the creation of the academic calendar for the upcoming academic year, 2019-2020. 2020!! Holy cow!

I have a fond remembrance for the bygone days when my calendar was one of those little ones offered at no cost by the Hallmark shops. The calendar was about 3" X 6" and each day was represented by a small square. It was perfect for keeping in the car, tossing in the purse, or front pocket of the book-bag. Today, nothing is offered for free. This little calendar is sold at nominal price most everywhere. But the truth of the matter is even at no cost, it would be ludicrous for me to throw one in my handbag. Cute though they are, it would serve no purpose. Alas...perhaps in retirement I'll be able to fit all my days' business in one of those little squares. Now, I relay all of this because calendar keeping can be quite the arduous task. The tricky part is arranging all of the appointments and mandatory commitments so as to be able to maintain one's sanity, and locate oneself appropriately at any given time of the day or night. Please understand, I'm not complaining because I can only imagine the complexity of calendars belonging to others; take for example the Superintendent of Schools, Dr. DeAngelo, or perhaps that of Bishop Malooly!

Bishop Malooly is highly respected by those of us at Holy Cross for the time he sets aside to visit with each of the Catholic schools. He demonstrates his belief in the importance of making a personal connection with the students and spends quality time with them when he visits the schools. He always concludes his session with the students by asking them to go home and thank their parents for the gift of a Catholic school education. I love that! Many thanks to the Bishop for his passion and commitment to the students of our Diocese, many of whom spent an evening with him this past Tuesday. The Annual Scholars Convocation is an event where eighth grade students from across the diocese who have been awarded academic scholarships by Catholic high schools have an opportunity to spend an evening with the Bishop. This year the Convocation was held at St. Anthony of Padua Church.

This celebration of achievement began with an impressive procession lead by the student honorees, followed by school administration, Diocesan Board members, and clergy. This was followed by a lovely prayer service presided over by Bishop Malooly prior to his recognition of the student honorees.

Holy Cross School is very proud of the student honorees granted academic scholarships by St. Thomas More Academy and Salesianum High School and offer our sincere congratulations to:

- Megan Forrest: Megan is an accomplished athlete and member of the NJHS. She was recognized as a Soaring Raven Scholarship recipient by Bishop Malooly.
- Ryan Kavorovic: Ryan is also a member of the NJHS as well as being an award winning artist recognized by the National Scholastic Arts Foundation. He was recognized as a Soaring Raven Scholarship recipient by Bishop Malooly.
- Ramon Manjon: Ramon is a member of the NJHS, an award winning tennis player, and was recognized as a Soaring Raven Scholarship recipient by Bishop Malooly.
- Divine Taniform: Divine is a member of the NJHS, a member of the Crusader choir, and an accomplished athlete. Divine was recognized as a Soaring Raven Scholarship recipient by Bishop Malooly. Additionally, Divine has also been awarded an academic scholarship by Salesianum High School.

At the beginning of the school year Father Lentini spoke at the annual Eighth Grade Breakfast. He told the students that sitting in and among them was at least one future high school valedictorian. He was completely correct in his prognostication. I wonder if at least one of them spent an evening with Bishop Malooly last Tuesday?

PARISH NEWS

Adult Confirmation

The Bishop celebrates the Sacrament of Confirmation each year for those adults who have not yet completed their initiation. The date is on Sunday, June 9 at 1 pm at St. Margaret of Scotland. This celebrations are for those over the age of 18 who have already been baptized and received their First communion.

In order to participate in this confirmation, adults must take a one evening class to prepare. It will take place here at Holy Cross on Monday, May 13, at 7:00 pm, on the second floor of the Early Learning Center Building. You must call into the Parish Office, ext. 110, to reserve a spot in the class. A recently-issued Baptismal Certificate for each candidate to be confirmed will need to be provided. If no baptismal certificate is available, an affidavit of Baptism is required. Please bring this information with you to the class.

Thanks from the Samaritans

Thanks to your generosity we were able to give an Easter Basket of a ham and other Easter foods to 80 Families consisting of 151 Adults and 221 children.

This year to date, we were able to give almost two weeks of food to over 324 Families consisting of 644 Adults and 468 Children.

Also, we are in need of small packages of ground beef and hot dogs as well as canned meats and chunky soups.

Marriage Moments

Good communication is essential in healthy marriages. Whether you are an extrovert or an introvert, why not try to communicate mostly non-verbally for one hour or so this week. It might just cause some silly fun - or it might give you some insight into each other. Talk about it afterwards.

Parenting Pointers

As we remember Jesus ascending into heaven, perhaps you and your child could "lift up" in prayer the memory of deceased relatives who have gone to be with God. Even though we don't know where "heaven" is, children can watch a balloon or kite ascend toward the heavens - and pray.

St. Thomas More Academy

St. Thomas More Academy is hosting its fourth annual "Out of the Darkness Walk" on behalf of the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention. The walk will be held on Sunday, May 19th at 1:00 pm on the campus of St. Thomas More Academy. The walk benefits the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention and aims to raise awareness about suicide and resources for prevention. You are encouraged to register in advance online at www.afsp.org/saintmore but registration will also be accepted on site beginning at 12:30pm. We hope to see you there!

Young at Heart

Next meeting is May 13. Dr. Sam Hoff, Political Science Department, Delaware State University, will be the speaker. Early Learning Center, Matthew/Mark room at 11:00. Lunch is $5.00. Desserts are always welcome.

OTHER NEWS

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

Try the Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend! This is a positive, simple, common sense experience for a husband and wife who want to put the "SPARK" back into marriage. The next Marriage Encounter Weekend will be November 1-3, 2019 in Rehoboth Beach, DE. For information, visit our website at www.me-delmar.org or to register for the weekend, please contact Tony and Linda Massino at 302-220-9833.

Vocations

Do you have joy that cannot be contained? The apostles experienced great joy through teaching in the name of Jesus, even though they were persecuted for doing so. Every day, religious sisters and brothers, along with deacons and priests, teach in the name of Jesus, despite all sorts of difficulties. Maybe God is calling you to join in that great venture. If you think so, please call or write Fr. Norm Carroll, Diocesan Vocation Director (302-573-3113, vocations@cdow.org). Be sure to visit our website: www.cdow.org/vocations

Catholic Forum

We are excited to announce a new broadcast station, day and time for Catholic Forum! Listen every Saturday morning at 11:00 on Relevant Radio 640. Next Saturday, May 11th, we celebrate Mothers' Day weekend with the founder of CatholicMom.com, Lisa Hendey and learn about her new book, "I am God's Story Teller." After it airs, listen online anytime at www.cdow.org/CatholicForum, or search "Catholic Forum" on Apple, Spotify, or iHeartRadio podcasts. St. Paul Church

Saint Paul Catholic Church in Wilmington, Delaware is celebrating its 150th Anniversary. The first celebration is a Mass commemorating the actual ground breaking of our church on May 24, 1869. We are inviting all former and current parishioners, alumni, teachers, staff, priests, deacons, and anyone with a connection to our parish history. The Mass will be celebrated by Most Reverend Bishop Francis Malooly on Sunday, May 19, 2019 at 10:30am, at Saint Paul Church, 4th and Jackson Street, Wilmington, Delaware. A fellowship gathering with light refreshments will follow immediately after Mass.\

Sodality Meeting

There is a meeting this Sunday, May 5, at 12:30 pm on the second floor of the Early Learning Center Building for the Sodality Group. All are welcome to join us and see what we are about. Hope to see you there.
