Information About Reception of the Sacraments

The seven Sacraments of the Church were instituted by Christ to confer grace.

Sacrament of Baptism. Call the parish office to register for the parents' pre-Baptismal instruction. For adults seeking to enter the Church and be Baptized, contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Penance (Confession). Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for Confession at age seven, as part of First Communion preparation.

Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for First Communion at age seven. Adults seeking First Communion should contact our Religious Ed. Office

Sacrament of Confirmation. Young people in our parish are prepared for reception of Confirmation in the ninth grade (age 14). For adults seeking Confirmation contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. Couples planning for Marriage are to contact a parish priest or deacon one year in advance to set the wedding date and plan for pre-Cana instruction.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. If you believe you have, or someone you know has, a vocation to the Priesthood or Diaconate, please contact one of our parish priests.

Anointing of the Sick. For the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick (sometimes called "Last Rites") administered by a Priest, a person or immediate family member must make the request. Late night requests may not be able to be answered until the next day. For a visitation to the sick, or Holy Communion to the sick, contact our parish office.

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend, on Saturday (May 11), many young people from Holy Cross and Immaculate Conception Parishes will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation from Bishop Malooly. With that in mind, I thought it would be appropriate to use this Pastor's Column to focus on the Church's teachings regarding this wonderful Sacrament.

That Rascally Rabbit. The late Country singer Eddie Rabbit — who, by the way, was Brooklyn born — had a hit song some 30 years ago called “Step by Step” — it was a syrupy country-pop number that informed the listener that if you really wanted to properly woo a lady you love, there are three steps that must be undertaken. First step: take her out and treat her like a lady; second step: tell her she's the one you're dreaming of; and the third step: take her in your arms and never let her go. As I dig out from under the schmaltz, I am reminded that full initiation into the Catholic Church likewise has three steps (i.e., three Sacraments of Initiation): Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist.

What is Confirmation? Confirmation is the Sacrament that is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace. Our Catechism states that “by the sacrament of Confirmation, the baptized are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Hence they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed.”

A $64,000 Question. Now in its ancient form, and even today in the Eastern Rite of the Church, Confirmation is received immediately after Baptism. However, through ecclesial developments in the West and the desire to clearly express the communion of the young Christian with the Bishop, the Sacrament of Confirmation, in time, was separated from Baptism. This allowed for Sacramental preparation and for the Bishop, as the ordinary minister of the Sacrament, to be able to confirm the large number of Catholics desiring the Sacrament (i.e., he is able to go from parish to parish confirming those receiving the Sacrament). So, how old must a baptized Catholic be before he is able to receive Confirmation? That is the $64,000 question — and the answer is evasive: It may vary by Diocese in this country from age seven to seventeen, at the discretion of the Bishop.

Oils Well that Ends Well. Okay, so now that we have the time frame and context in place, what is Confirmation? Confirmation is the Sacrament that is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that “by the sacrament of Confirmation, the baptized are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Hence they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed.” Let's get more concrete about the meaning of the Sacrament; and let's do that by looking at the Ritual of Confirmation which helps us to understand the Sacrament more clearly.

Sealing the Deal. In the pivotal moment of the Sacrament of Confirmation, the Bishop anoints the crown of the head of the one to be confirmed with Sacred Chrism (a consecrated holy oil). As he anoints the candidate, he says, “Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit.” Okay, let's flashback to Baptism: an infant who was baptized was likewise anointed on the head with the same Sacred Chrism. Think of the application of this holy oil in terms of paint: When you have to paint a wall, you first put on a primer coat, then you put on the second coat to seal it in. In Baptism, a child receives the Holy Spirit and the Chrism is applied for the first time; in Confirmation, a second-coat (if you will allow the analogy) of Chrism is applied — sealing and completing the baptismal graces. In some manner it may be observed that Confirmation is a form of completing the Sacrament of Baptism. And like Baptism, Confirmation is received only once, as it imprints an indelible spiritual mark on the soul, marking that person as eternally belonging to Christ.

What's the matter? What is necessary for the reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation? Catholic teaching tells us that Sacraments require specific “form and matter” to be present in order that they be in fact conferred. In order for the Sacrament of Confirmation to be properly conferred, the “matter” that must be present is a baptized un-confirmed person and Sacred Chrism; the “form” of the Sacrament is the proper minister saying the words Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit as the Sacred Chrism is applied.

That's the Spirit! What are the effects of this Sacrament of Confirmation? Upon being Confirmed, the Holy Spirit goes “all Santa” on a person; he drops off a whole bunch of presents (gifts)! Known as the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, these are traditionally identified as:

- Wisdom - allows one to comprehend, more fully, the truths of faith
- Understanding - allows one to appreciate creation in relation to God
- Counsel —allows one to make right judgment (i.e., when you judge, do it well and rightly).
- Fortitude — gives moral courage to do God's will, even in the face of adversity
- Knowledge — gives awareness and comprehension of God
- Piety — gives awareness of the need to worship and love God, with reverence
- Fear of the Lord — allows us to be aware that God is always aware of all that we do

Grand Opening! Now, like all presents, we have to open them and use them to get their benefits. If you treat these gifts of the Holy Spirit like a 10-year old treats the gifts of a pair of socks at Christmas (e.g., toss them aside and look for something else in the gift pile), then you may fail to get the benefit of what God has given you. If you do put these sacred gifts to use, they will bear fruit (that is, they will show forth in your life). The Church dubs these benefits as the “Fruits of the Holy Spirit,” and they are: Charity, Joy, Peace, Patience, Benignity, Goodness, Long-suffering (patient suffering), Mildness, Faith, Modesty, Continence (self-control), and Chastity.

And with that brief overview of Confirmation, I would ask you to pray for our young people who have received this Sacrament this weekend; may they be strengthened in their faith and helped to always bear good witness to the name Christian.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. James Lentini, Pastor

SCHOOL INFORMATION

"Well Mrs. Pollitt, Our Lady certainly did smile down upon us this morning." These are the words of thanksgiving offered by Mrs. McDermott after we experienced a few doubtful moments early on in the morning of our annual May Procession. The terms I used to describe the local weather conditions were bleak, dark and cold in an email to faculty advising them of the potential for a plan B. With having had the most favorable of climatological conditions less than twenty four hours previous, I was fearful of our students coming to school inappropriately attired for the lengthy procession planned. The modern steel ribbed umbrella was invented over two centuries ago, and in my time has proven to be quite the handy contraption for protection from falling raindrops. But, I ask you, what child brings an umbrella to school in this day and time? Very few, if any!

We were not to be deterred. We came upon not only a plan B, and a plan C, but before it was all over, thanks to Father Etim, we implemented a plan D! Following our weekly Wednesday Mass, all students were dismissed to line up along the pavement on State Street. Formally and most appropriately attired, Anthony, Ethan, Jordan, and Ramon bore the securely fastened statue Our Lady of Fatima upon their shoulders and with all the dignity in the world they walked Her out to meet the faculty and student body of Holy Cross School. They were followed by Kimberly, Alexia, Josephine, Katie, Megan and Rosemary who each took turns leading the school community in the rosary. Our sweet second graders looking precious in their Sunday best followed behind Alexia. Carrying the pillow on which rested the crown for the coronation, Julianna was escorted by Owen, both of second grade. Emily who was selected for the crowning of Our Lady was escorted by Ryan. If you're a fan of pomp and circumstance, believe me when I say...we had both! As I looked towards the heavens, I saw glimpses of sunshine through the light gray clouds; the bleak, dark and cold was simply a thing of the past.

Morning Mass and procession served to mark the beginning of our annual school wide Retreat Day. We always set a day aside to culminate our celebration of our Diocesan theme. Following the morning events our students had an absolute blast in the cross-grade activity which this year was a scavenger hunt. The scavenger hunt was the brainchild of Mrs. Williams. Mrs. Guido fully embraced the idea, along with the other members of the Religion Committee. The idea was to have the children scour the campus in search of places where we Rejoice in the Lord! Mrs. McGowan, in all of her enthusiasm set immediately to the task of writing the clues. Mrs. Williams was to have each station manned by a volunteer armed with a Chromebook. Mrs. Guido was set to place all of the complicated logistics in order devising three paths; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Mrs. Williams had spent a couple of weeks scurrying about "filming" faculty and staff as we read clues for the children to solve. As students arrived at each station, a puzzle piece was given. When all six had been gathered they were to return to the classroom and put the puzzle together. Are you following all of this?? Neither did I. I really didn't get it until I arrived at my station with the Chromebook and one of the mom volunteers gave me a brief tutorial. Teachers were all over the parking lot insuring safe travel from one building to the next, and it was all great fun. The kids were talking about it for the rest of the week.

After all the exertion, our hot dog picnic lunch was a welcome respite. Adoration and an instructional Benediction rounded out our perfect day.

I love our school. I love our teachers. I love our clergy. But most of all, I love our students. They are my heart. Thank you for sharing them with me.

Vocations

Jesus says "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." By virtue of our baptism, each of us is called to follow the Great Shepherd, but He calls each in a specific way. How does the Lord want you to follow Him? Might He be calling you to serve as a priest, a deacon, a religious brother or a religious sister? If you think that might be the case, Call or write Fr. Norm Carroll, Diocesan Vocation Director (302-573-3113, vocations@cdow.org). Be sure to visit our website: www.cdow.org/vocations

SOCIAL CONCERNS

- Help save lives of the unborn in Dover. Join Holy Cross and other local church groups in prayer each Friday morning from 9 AM – noon at Planned Parenthood of Dover.
- What does your baby look like now? Follow your baby's development week by week, from conception to labor. 15 weeks: Your baby's eyelids are still fused shut, but she can sense light. If you shine a flashlight on your tummy, she'll move away from the beam. Ultrasounds done this week may reveal your baby's sex. Your baby is the size of an apple.
- Contact your State Government Official advising them to always vote in favor of LIFE.

"If the unborn is not a human person, no justification for abortion is necessary. However, if the unborn is a human person, no justification for abortion is adequate." ~Greg Kouki

Stop Assisted Suicide

Once again, a bill that would legalize physician-assisted suicide in Delaware has been introduced. Efforts on the part of the Catholic community, other faith groups, the Medical Society of Delaware, the Delaware Health Care Association, and advocates for persons with disabilities, kept this legislation from becoming law in 2017 and 2018. We need to do so again this year, and are asking for your help. You can get more information and send an email to your representatives in Dover by visiting www.cdow.org/StopAssistedSuicide. Thank you for helping to foster a culture of life in our state.
