Information About Reception of the Sacraments

The seven Sacraments of the Church were instituted by Christ to confer grace.

Sacrament of Baptism. Call the parish office to register for the parents' pre-Baptismal instruction. For adults seeking to enter the Church and be Baptized, contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Penance (Confession). Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for Confession at age seven, as part of First Communion preparation.

Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Children in our religious education program and school are prepared for First Communion at age seven. Adults seeking First Communion should contact our Religious Ed. Office

Sacrament of Confirmation. Young people in our parish are prepared for reception of Confirmation in the ninth grade (age 14). For adults seeking Confirmation contact our Religious Ed. Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. Couples planning for Marriage are to contact a parish priest or deacon one year in advance to set the wedding date and plan for pre-Cana instruction.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. If you believe you have, or someone you know has, a vocation to the Priesthood or Diaconate, please contact one of our parish priests.

Anointing of the Sick. For the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick (sometimes called "Last Rites") administered by a Priest, a person or immediate family member must make the request. Late night requests may not be able to be answered until the next day. For a visitation to the sick, or Holy Communion to the sick, contact our parish office.

Dear Parishioners,

When I was a school teacher, I used to go back to my classroom in early August to start preparing for the new school year. I'd clean the room, ready the desks, organize the books, hang up classroom signs, and so forth. This was all done in preparation for what was coming in September. At times, I would be alone in the building doing this. And I must confess, being alone in a school building and walking through those empty halls, is an odd feeling for any teacher. The building is exactly what it should be: it is a school, complete with desks, closets, chalkboards, books, etc. But something is missing! And what's missing is the Spirit in the school, which is what comes into the school on that first day when all the teachers and the students are back. It is then that everything comes alive.

Today, the church celebrates Pentecost – the 50th day after Easter. Today the Church receives what it has awaited: The Spirit, promised by Christ, is now filling the Church – giving it life, just as students give life to a school.

Put Down the Party Hats. Many people identify Pentecost as the Birthday of the Church. That is not exactly correct. The Church does not teach that Pentecost is the Birthday of the Church, except perhaps in a colloquial sense. But what the Catechism of the Catholic Church (#766) actually teaches us about the birth of the Church is this:

“The origin and growth of the Church are symbolized by the blood and water which flowed from the open side of the crucified Jesus. For it was from the side of Christ as he slept the sleep of death upon the cross that there came forth the wondrous sacrament of the whole Church. As Eve was formed from the sleeping Adam's side, so the Church was born from the pierced heart of Christ hanging dead on the cross.”

Thus, the birthday of the Church is Good Friday, as it was born from the blood and water that flowed from Christ. So, if that's the case, then what are we celebrating today, on Pentecost? To answer that question, I am going to use an archaic terminology which best speaks to today's celebration. I'd like to describe Pentecost to you not as the birthday of the Church, but rather as the “quickenings” of the Church. The term “quickenings” is not an everyday word we use these days, so let me give you an idea of what this word conveys, by way of a little word history.

The Quick and the Dead. Many of you may remember a movie called the “The Quick and the Dead.” It was a 1995 movie starring Gene Hackman and Russell Crowe. In the title of that movie, the term “quick” doesn't refer to swiftness; rather it is an old English term that means “the living.” Thus the phrase “the quick and the dead,” actually means “the living and the dead.” This sense of quick is also, what we mean when we speak of “quick sand” -- it means a living or moving sand.

From this sense of the word “quick” we get the word “quickenings,” meaning an enlivening of something.

Friends of the Lord a-Leaping. If you recall the story of when St. Elizabeth was visited by Mary (the Visitation), we are told John the Baptist leapt in Elizabeth's womb. That event was the quickening of John the Baptist: he had always been alive in his mother's womb, but it was at that moment that spirit filled him and he moved... he leapt. When someone is in God's midst, as rock group Van Halen noted in their 1984 hit, he “may as well jump.” And that just what John the Baptist did! To paraphrase the Pointer Sisters from their 1983 hit, he jumped for God's love!

And so, on Pentecost, the Church -- born on Good Friday -- is quickened; it is enlivened. It is leaping for joy, empowered by the Spirit sent to it by the Father and the Son. On Pentecost, the Apostles, who had previously not been the most dynamic of men, suddenly enlivened. If you recall, St. Peter had denied Christ earlier, other Apostles had hidden, others couldn't recognize Christ immediately, and St. Thomas even doubted Christ's resurrection. The Apostles were followers of Christ, but the Church they presided over prior to Pentecost was like the empty school building I spoke of at the outset --- it had everything necessary, but it lacked the Spirit, it lacked liveliness.

The Times they Are a-Changin'. On Pentecost everything changed! The Apostles and the Church underwent a sort of quickening. The Acts of the Apostles relates that “they [the Apostles] were filled with the Holy Spirit... He enabled them to proclaim.”

In short, the Apostles who had floundered about in the early days of the Church, were suddenly enlivened, quickened, and filled with the Spirit of God. They no longer just followed, now they proclaimed. They spoke to the world. Like John the Baptist leaping in his Mother's womb, these Apostles were now leaping to serve Christ. Now, they were filled with the gifts of the spirit and could more fully serve the Church. Christ had promised this: He said he would send the Advocate, the Holy Spirit who would teach them everything, remind them of everything he had taught them; He kept his promise.

A Few of Our Favorite Things. On this feast of Pentecost, we celebrate several wonderful things, but most powerfully we celebrate the promise of Christ being fulfilled by the sending of the Spirit which filled the Church and brought it fully to life.

Like the empty school building I spoke of, even when it is empty it is still a school, but once it is filled with students and teachers, it is able to serve the purpose for which the school was established. On Pentecost that is what happened to the Church. Our Church begins fully to do what it was created to do by Christ for: to serve his call and continue making known the Good News of salvation. And since 33AD, that is what we have been doing, with absolute certitude, with no fear of doubt, and with evangelical perfection. As the Holy Spirit changed the Apostles all those years ago, descending on them in tongues of fire, let the Holy Spirit change each one of us, enlivening us to serve of Lord Jesus Christ and his one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. Happy Pentecost!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. James Lentini
Pastor

SCHOOL INFORMATION

A-M-A-Z-I-N-G!! I don't use that word lightly because everyone else does. When an expression or term becomes trite, it becomes meaningless. But, when I tell you that Walkathon Day at Holy Cross was amazing, I mean A-M-A-Z-I-N-G!!! Nothing about the day could have been improved upon. N-O-T-H-I-N-G!

How do you define amazing? Here follows the definitive definition....

1. Perfect weather. Lots of sunshine, most agreeable atmospheric conditions marked the day!
2. Fever pitch school spirit, our Walkathon shirts accessorized by the color assigned to each grade. Bangles and beads, hats and feathers, bows and ribbons, spelled uniform for the day!
3. Prayer. Father Etim led us all in prayer, because everything amazing begins with prayer.
4. Happy Feet. We could not WAIT another second. Teachers led their spirited walkers through the festive balloon arch marking the beginning of the trek.
5. Cheerleaders: Our friends from STMA were out along the route to clap and cheer us on as we made our way along the route.
6. MUSIC!! God bless Mr. LiCausi for donating his time and all his musical paraphernalia!! He was ready to greet the walkers as they completed the hike with festive and celebratory tunes!
7. Bananas---replenish the potassium!
8. H2O!— rehydration!
9. Granola Bars—rolled oats and honey for the nutrition!
10. Moms, Dads, Grandmas, and Grandpas: They must have taken a million pictures! So much fun!
11. Giant Parachutes, Giant playground balls and Games: Fun and frolic in the field followed as the festivities continued...
12. Dairy Queen Gift Cards: Prizes for the most spirited garb....

And so it was the morning of the 31st. What about the rest of the day, you say? Well, you know what they say....Walk, Eat, Celebrate... repeat! Bring on the big kids and do it all again! Crank up the music, get out there and put one foot in front of the other!

We are ever so grateful:

⇒ To OUR WONDERFUL FAMILIES who made such generous donations to the event.

⇒ To all of our VERY GENEROUS SPONSORS who never say no to HCS.

Marriage Moments

4 Steps to Marriage CPR:

1. Patience. It took time for your relationship to need resuscitation; it will take time for it to get well again.
2. Determination. Choose to be committed to each other for life, Work together with zeal to heal any hurts.
3. Forgive and accept forgiveness.
4. Pursue truth. Communicate openly and honestly.

Parenting Pointers

Pentecost Sunday is when the apostles were understood by people who spoke different languages. The gift of "tongues" can be interpreted in many ways. Teach your child a word or phrase in another language this week.

Recently Deceased

Our sympathy goes out to the families of:

- Eugene H. Belt, Rose Abate

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.

Newly Baptized

Congratulations to our newest baptized members:

- Alvin Elijah Jean
- Madelynn Anne Manners
- Vesper Almalee Martin

Young at Heart

No June meeting for our Young at Heart Group. The senior group will meet again next September. Have a restful and enjoyable summer. Hope to see you all in the Fall!!!

OTHER NEWS

Vocations

You are invited to join Bishop Malooly in prayer and support of those discerning a call to the Priesthood, Consecrated Life and Permanent Diaconate at the Diocesan Mass for Vocations, Saturday, June 15, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. at the Cathedral of Saint Peter, 500 N. West Street, in Wilmington. More information is available at www.cdow.org/vocations.

The Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles, and they began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them. The Spirit descends on us, too, at Baptism and at Confirmation. Each of us is called to discipleship, though we are called in different ways. Some are called to raise families, others to remain single. Some are called to be agents of healing through medicine, others to be agents of enlightenment through teaching. God calls police officers and soldiers to protect us, poets and musicians to inspire us, farmers and merchants to nourish us. And some God calls to priesthood, to the diaconate and to the religious life as a specific way of continuing the work of the Kingdom. Might God be calling you to a religious vocation? If you think so, call or write Fr. Norm Carroll, Diocesan Vocation Director (302-573-3113, vocations@cdow.org). Be sure to visit our website: www.cdow.org/vocations

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

Try the Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend! This is a positive, simple, common sense experience for a husband and wife who want to put the "SPARK" back into marriage. The next Marriage Encounter Weekend will be November 1-3, 2019 in Rehoboth Beach, DE. For information, visit our website at www.medelmar.org or to register for the weekend, please contact Tony and Linda Massino at 302-220-9833.

CYM Fall Sports registration opens June 15th.

We would love to welcome your son or daughter for Volleyball, Football, Soccer and Cross Country. There is a team for every young athlete, either at your parish or nearby. Don't delay, practices begin in August! For questions, visit www.cdowcym.org/athletics, or email mcarucci@cdow.org.

Catholic Forum

Listen to Catholic Forum every Saturday morning at 11:00 on Relevant Radio 640. Next Saturday, June 15th, we celebrate Fathers' Day with Sam Guzman, author of the new book, "The Catholic Gentleman." After it airs, listen online anytime at www.cdow.org/CatholicForum, or search "Catholic Forum" on Apple, Spotify, or iHeartRadio podcasts.
